Not illustrated. 1896 Excerpt: . . . was of the value of 241, 109, with the price 27-48s. per cvvt, and cast our glance through the intervening years down to 1895, when our export amounted to 756, 704, the price being 2078s. per cwt, there is not a single year in which there was any near approach to our last years trade. The course of our soap trade during the last ten years can be seen from the following Table, compiled by a writer in the Daily Graphic, September 14th: --Our author then takes up the Lesser Trades, which he defines as those which are on a lower level than the gigantic industries hitherto dealt with. Toys come first. Figures are given as to our imports from foreign countries in 1895. The total value was 991, 647, of which Germany, which will include Holland, sent us 796, 727 worth. You may search the Board of Trade export returns in vain for any mention of any export of British toys anywhere. Our author then descants at length on the inferiority of these to foreign ones, contrasting the roughness and lack of finish of English toys with the realism and finish of the foreign article, winding up by asking why the English toyman should not avail himself of the advantage which cost of carriage gives him over the foreign imports, this cost averaging from 8 to 12J per cent. All this may be very true, and serves to point out a department of industry which...
