There is no falsehood so startling, no the ory so repugnant, no imposition so extreme, that it may not find shallow waters in the mind for its reception, and retentive harbors of belief. In turn, men have worshipped at the shrine of the toad, the fox, the serpent, the. Bull, and even the dripping tiger. In turn, again, there have been idolaters who have abased themselves before hideous shapes of wood, who have adored the elements, who have made sacrifices to the sun and stars; and there have been, also, even those who, disdaining the celestial competition, have turned their backs upon the entire Pantheon, and founded a worship to The Unknown God. History has exhibited itself in the same way in re gard to rulers; and it frequently renews its lessons of...
