Aren t you glad? Glad? You bet I m glad, Snap! Why I ve been watching for this storm for about six months! There you go, Whopper! answered Charley Dodge, with a grin. Six months indeed! Why, we haven t been home six months. Well, it seems that long anyway, said Frank Dawson, who was usually called Whopper by his chums, because of his exaggerations when speaking. I ve just been aching to see it snow. So that we can take that trip we proposed, put in Sheppard Reed, quickly. I guess we are all waiting for that. I am anyway, came from Will Caslette, the smallest lad of the four, who had gathered at their usual meeting place in the town where they resided. Our camping out last summer was immense. If only we have half as much fun this winter! We will have, Giant, broke in the boy called Whopper. Didn t I tell you I was going to bring down sixteen deer, twenty bears, two hundred wild...
