Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered Before the Alumni Association of Nassau-Hall Mr. President, and Gentlemen, Alumni of Nassau-Hall - We have come, my friends, to revisit together the scene of our early studies. Since last we parted here, time and distance have widely separated us: - the world and the worlds cares have engrossed us; - death with no sparing hand has been amongst us, - but we have at length returned, probably for the last time, to mingle our remembrances of the living and our regrets over the departed. At such an hour what can I say to you which your own hearts have not anticipated? We stand here - on this narrow strait which separates the long past from the brief futurity which awaits us - a feeble group, the wreck of so many argosies that spread their young and venturous sails on the wide ocean of life, freighted with light hearts, too early overclouded - and buoyant hopes too soon quenched beneath its waves. How often as the storms of life assailed them, would...
