

Castle Chaos (Ecological Tales Series)

By Guillet, Jean-Pierre

Quintin Pub, U.S.A., 1993. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. "Ecological Tales" are especially written to increase awareness among children of the great need to protect the planet Earth. A series where fantasy meets reality. Jean-Pierre Guillet is a Canadian writer and biologist, born in Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu (Quebec). He has University degrees in biology, pedagogy and library science. He was a biology teacher, pedagogical advisor and librarian in a Quebec college. He is the author of several books of fiction, mostly for young people. He won the 1998 Aurora Award for best Canadian science-fiction book in French. On the shore of the lake behind King Pip's castle, Princess Clementine lives in a dream world, making up stories in which the frogs turn into elves, the heron becomes a dragon and the raccoon, a masked bandit. But King Pip has plans for the lake - his men clean up the shore and build a big terrace. Disaster follows! What will happen to young Clementine's little corner of paradise?.
