Not illustrated. 1885 Excerpt: .cannot amend an act of the Legislature by changing the name of an institution which had been given by law, but this rule has not governed their action in this regard on many occasions. By an ordinance passed April 6, 1849, it was required that the lot, building, library and apparatus should be fully paid for before incorporation, or submission to visitation. The charters granted by the Regents, and the amendments thereto, were formerly, and for a long period, recorded in the office of Secretary of State. By an act passed April 13, 1855, they were required to be recorded in the office of the Secretary of the Regents, and transcripts were directed to be made from records formerly entered in the office of Secretary of State. Copies of these records, under the seal of the Regents, were allowed to be used in the courts the...
