Now, I want to reiterate - and I will be brief; I see the red light is on - there is no single solution to this very complex challenge that we face. This is going to take entire communities working to-gether and realizing that it is everyones responsibility. Personally, for my part, on the demand side I volunteer in the Boy Scouts of Americas law enforcement Explorer program and in traditional scouting, and I see firsthand how dedicated prevention strategies can positively affect our youth. Education, prevention, and treatment are long-term solu-tions, and law enforcement must remain a strong partner for this approach to have a positive impact.
