Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Boys and Girls Readers: Fourth Reader, Fifth Reader, Sixth Reader The object of this Manual is to bring enthusiasm into the teaching of reading and to show various ways in which to motivate the reading period to get better results. To do this, two things are necessary: (a) to know what we are expected to accomplish in reading by the end of the sixth grade, and (b) to have a vision of what the teaching of reading involves. In that excellent Bulletin, entitled The Reorganization of English in Secondary Schools, issued by the Department of the Interior in 1917, the following standards are laid down for the end of the sixth grade: At the end of the sixth grade pupils should be able: (1) To express clearly and consecutively, either in speech or in writing, ideas which are familiar and firmly grasped; (2) to avoid gross grammatical errors; (3) to compose and mail a letter; (4) to spell their own written vocabulary; (5) to read silently, and after one reading to reproduce the substance...
