Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The First Century of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy: 1821-1921 The history of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy - the first College of Pharmacy in the New World - covers practically the history of American Pharmacy. Instituted in 1821 and incorporated in 1822, the College has exerted a potent influence in developing pharmaceutical education, improving the conditions of pharmaceutical practice, and rendering, through its thousands of graduates, a nationwide service for the relief of human suffering and the conservation of public health. It is therefore fitting that, upon the centenary of the founding of this college, its history be reviewed and its principles and traditions perpetuated. Briefly, this volume considers: Philadelphia and pharmacy as of one hundred years ago. The founding of the institution, largely by members of the Society of Friends with their homely virtues of modesty, thrift and wisdom, and love of peace and simple honor, its modest beginnings, and the primitive condition of the pharmacy of the time and its gross abuses. The pioneer work of Wood and Bache for scientific pharmacy....
